Location

The premises are well located, fronting Davyfield Road within the established Roman Road Industrial Estate in the south of Blackburn. This area is a long-standing industrial and commercial hub, benefiting from excellent connectivity.

The M65 motorway is situated within 2 miles of the property, providing efficient transport links both eastward to Burnley and Nelson and westward to Preston, where it connects to the wider motorway network, including the M6, M61, and M66.

The surrounding area is home to a range of occupiers, including Heritage Envelopes, The Navigator Company, and Store First Self Storage.

Description

The property is of steel portal frame construction with brick infill, surmounted by profile insulated metal cladding beneath a profile insulated roof with translucent panels. The unit comprises three separate bays of varying eaves heights, with internal access between them. Roller shutters are provided on both the front and rear elevations, and the units benefit from concrete floor, three-phase electricity, and LED lighting throughout. Gas space heaters are provided to two of the bays. The central bay benefits from a vehicle service pit, approximately 1.4m deep.

To the rear, there are offices offering a mix of reception, cellular, and open-plan office spaces, as well as amenities. Externally, the property provides a generously sized concrete yard that wraps around the unit, providing circulation within the site. The yard is secured by palisade fencing with gated access at two points off Davyfield Road.

Accommodation

The building extends to an approximate gross internal floor area of 1,139 m² (12,258 ft²).

The site extends to approximately 1.13 acres, with circa 0.46 acres comprising hardstanding.

Services

Mains electricity (3 phase), gas, water and drainage are available to the premises.
