- Trading Accommodation Over Ground and First Floors
- Situated Directly Between the City Centre and University Campus
- Suitable For A Variety Of Uses (stp)

Location

The property is prominently situated fronting Friargate, close to its junction with Ringway, which is the main thoroughfare linking Preston city centre with the main campus of the University of Lancashire.

The University's Preston campus has a community of over 38,000 students and staff and has recently benefited from the completion of a £200 million development masterplan.

Friargate itself has also recently benefitted from the completion of the 'Transforming Friargate North and Ringway' improvement scheme which has created a pedestrian and cycle friendly space offering occupiers along Friargate the ability to provide outdoor seating and al fresco dining opportunities for customers.

Description

The premises comprise a three storey building, together with basement, of masonry construction, being overclad on the upper floors and rendered to the exterior of the ground floor.

The property benefits from a substantial glazed frontage to Friargate at ground floor level and UPVC double glazed windows to the upper floors.

Internally, the premises provide extensive accommodation over three floors and have most recently been used as a bar having trading areas together with WC facilities on both the ground and first floors.

Further ancillary accommodation, which provides storage, office, kitchen and WC facilities, is located on the second floor with additional storage in the basement.
