Location

The premises occupy a prominent position on Rough Hey Road close to its junction with and Longridge Road (B6243).

The property benefits from excellent strategic connectivity, being located approximately 1 mile to the west of Junction 31a of the M6 motorway, which in turn provides direct access to the M55, M61 and M65 motorways, all within a short driving distance. Preston city centre lies approximately 2 miles to the south west.

The surrounding area is an established commercial location, with nearby occupiers including the headquarters and distribution facilities of EH Booths and James Hall (Spar), reinforcing the area's strength as a regional employment and logistics hub.

Description

A single storey semi detached industrial/warehouse unit of steel portal frame construction with brick and concrete block elevations beneath a cementitious sheet roof incorporating translucent roof lights.

The accommodation provides a clear span warehouse with an approximate eaves height of 5.7 metres, together with two storey offices to the front incorporating male and female WC facilities, canteen and ancillary stores.

The warehouse benefits from a concrete floor, warm air space heating, LED lighting and two Street overhead travelling gantry cranes, each understood to have a 10 tonne lifting capacity, running substantially the length of the building.

Externally, surfaced car parking/hardstanding are provided to the front of the unit.
